

HYDROKON, the electronic water level controller from Aeon Electronics, maintains uninterrupted supply of water from the overhead tank. It prevents wastage of water by overflow and reduces your electricity bill.

Once Hydrokon is attached to your pump-motor, the pump-motor automatically starts when the water level drops below a certain level. When the water level reaches a certain level, Hydrokon automatically stops pumpmotor. These levels are determined by the user.